LOAN-3,00,000 BOLLARS.—Scaled proposals will be received at the office of the Company, in Philadelphia, antil the 15th day of September next, at sinset, for the whole or any portion of the above named Loan.
The Loan will be secured by a first mortage on the Railroad of the Company-24 miles in length—and its equipment, which, when pieced in complete operation between Harrisborgh and Pitzebergh, with single track and sidings, will sort $12,500,000.
The amount of opconditional subscriptions to the capital stock of the Company on the Sist May, was $2,700,000, which will shortly be increased to Ten Millions. On these subscriptions there was paid at that date $9,417,895.
This broad basis, together with the large receipts of the Company from the business of the road in its unfinished condition, (demonstrating beyond a doubt, the ability of the Company to pay not only interest on its debt, but ample dividends to stockholders,) enables the Directors to offer this loan to capitalists, with an unqualified assurance that it will allow as safe an investment of their funds, and as certain in the punctuality with which the interest will be met, as the best government securities.

The Honds will be issued in sums of One Thousand Dollars, with interest coupons, at the rate of six per cent attached, payable on the first day of January and July, of each year, at the office of the Company, in this city, or in sums of 250 dering, with interest coupons, at the rate of five per
ext. payable in London—each without any deduction fo
taxes. DENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD

The Bonds will be redeemed where the interest is made payable on the Slat of December, 1880, or they may be converted, at the option of the owner, into the capital stock of the Company, at par, at any time provious to the Slat December, 1860.

the Company, at par, at any time previous to the 31st December, 1860.

Twenty-five per cent. of each accepted bid to be paid within twenty days after the receipt of notice of its acceptance at London, if for Sterling Bonds, and Philaselphia, if for Dollar Bonds; the remainder to be paid in installments every 90 days thereafter, until the whole amount is settled, or the full amount can be paid in at once if desired.

The proposals will be addressed to GEORGE V. BACON.
Tressurer, Philadelphia, and indorsed "Proposals for Loan."
They will specify the price effected for Dollar and Storling Bonds, or either.

The bids will be opened and determined by the Board of Directors, on the 16th day of September.

Any further information in relation to the road and its prospects will be furnished on application at the effice of the Company, or to EDWARD MILLER, Chief Engineer, the special Agent of the Company in London.
